Reading stories in other languages

Usually we invite parents into school who can speak a language other than English. Unfortunately, this year we have been unable to do this. However, we would still love to hear from you!

Please upload a video to Dojo of yourself reading a children's story in the language, showing the pages as you read it. At the beginning please tell us what the language is!

Our topic this week is British Classics- Films

We will be learning about different British films including Wallace and Gromit. We will be making our own characters from Plasticine and filming an animation sequence.
